for any payments required to be made by the judgment debtor by virtue of law or prior order of a court or under wage assignments outstanding. Where the judgment debtor claims or is proved to be rendering services to or employed by a relative or other person or by a corporation owned or controlled by a relative or other person, without salary or compensation, or at a salary or compensation so inadequate as to satisfy the court that such salary or compensation is merely colorable and designed to defraud or impede the creditors of such debtor, the court may direct such debtor to make payments on account of the judgment, in installments, based upon a reasonable value of the services rendered by such judgment debtor under his said employment or upon said debtor's then earning ability. The court may, from time to time, modify an order made under this section upon application of either party upon notice to the other.
A failure or neglect of the debtor to comply with an order of direction of the court, shall, upon conviction, be punished as for contempt and subject to a fine not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) as provided in Section 566 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes.
    SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2019.
