5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

6 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 22 O.S. 2011, Section 1101, is 7 amended to read as follows:

8 Section 1101. A. Except as otherwise provided by law, bail, by 9 sufficient sureties, shall be admitted upon all arrests in criminal 10 cases where the offense is not punishable by death and in such cases 11 it may be taken by any of the persons or courts authorized by law to 12 arrest, to imprison offenders or to perform pretrial services, or by 13 the clerk of the district court or his or her deputy, or by the 14 judge of such courts.

15 B. In criminal cases where the defendant is currently an 16 escaped prisoner from the Department of Corrections, the defendant 17 must be processed back into the Department of Corrections prior to 18 bail being set on new criminal charges.

19 C. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except 20 that bail may be denied for:

21 1. Capital offenses when the proof of guilt is evident, or the 22 presumption thereof is great. Such proof or presumption must be 23 supported by clear and convincing evidence; 24

1        2. Violent offenses as defined in Section 571 of Title 57 of 2 the Oklahoma Statutes;

3        3. Offenses where the maximum sentence may be life imprisonment 4 or life imprisonment without parole;

5        4. Felony offenses where the person charged with the offense 6 has been convicted of two or more felony offenses arising out of 7 different transactions; and

8        5. Controlled dangerous substances offenses where the maximum 9 sentence may be at least ten (10) years' imprisonment.

10       On all offenses specified in paragraphs 2 through 5 of this 11 subsection, the proof of guilt must be evident, or the presumption 12 must be great, demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence, and it 13 must be on the grounds that no condition of release would assure the 14 person's return to court or the safety of the community or any 15 person, demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence.

16       ~~D. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that no condition of~~ 17 ~~release would assure the safety of the community if the state shows~~ 18 ~~by clear and convincing evidence that the person was arrested for a~~ 19 ~~violation of Section 741 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes In~~ 20 ~~setting the amount of bail, the court shall make an individualized~~ 21 ~~determination of what is appropriate for the person. Bail shall not~~ 22 ~~be set in an amount higher than what the court determines is~~ 23 ~~reasonably necessary to ensure the person's return to court. In~~ 24 ~~setting the amount of bail, the court shall make an individualized~~

1 determination of what is appropriate for the accused person and 2 shall consider specific factors including, but not limited to, the 3 following:

4 1. The seriousness of the crime charged against the defendant;

5 2. The apparent likelihood of conviction;

6 3. The extent of the punishment prescribed by the Legislature;

7 4. The defendant's criminal record, if any, and previous record

8 on bail, if any;

9 5. The defendant's reputation and mental condition;

10 6. The length of the person's residence in the community;

11 7. The person's family ties and relationship;

12 8. The person's employment status, record of employment and 13 financial condition;

14 9. The identity of responsible members of the community who 15 would vouch for the defendant's reliability;

16 10. The person's financial ability to pay; and 17 11. Any other factors the court deems relevant to the setting

18 of bail.

19 E. In any case in which the court denies bail, the court shall 20 make an individualized determination supported by clear and 21 convincing evidence on the record, supported by written findings of 22 fact, that proof of guilt is evident or the presumption is great,

23 and that no condition of release would assure the person's return to 24 court or the safety of the community or any person.

1 SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 22 O.S. 2011, Section 1105, is
2 amended to read as follows:

4 upon the allowance of bail and the execution of the requisite 5 recognizance, bond, or undertaking to the state, the magistrate,

7 sign an order for discharge. The court, in its discretion, may 12 for a violation of an ex parte or final protective order as provided 13 in Sections 60.2 and 60.3 of this title, or arrested for an act

14 constituting domestic abuse as specified in Section 644 of Title 21 15 of the Oklahoma Statutes, or arrested for any act constituting

17 this title, or arrested for an act constituting domestic assault and 18 battery or domestic assault and battery with a deadly weapon
19 pursuant to Section 644 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes, 20 without the violator appearing before a magistrate, judge or court.
21 To the extent that any of the following information is available to 22 the court, the magistrate, judge or court shall consider, in 23 addition to any other circumstances, before determining bond and 24

1 other conditions of release as necessary for the protection of the 2 alleged victim, the following:

3 1. Whether the person has a history of domestic violence or a

12 ideations; and

13 ~~11-~~ 10. Any information contained in the complaint and any

16 C. No police officer or sheriff may release a person arrested

18 the Oklahoma Statutes, without the violator appearing before a 19 magistrate, judge, or court pursuant to Section 1105.2 of this 20 title. In determining bond and other conditions of release, the 21 magistrate, judge, or court shall consider any evidence that the 22 person is in any manner dependent upon a controlled dangerous 23 substance or has a pattern of regular, illegal use of any controlled 24 dangerous substance. ~~A rebuttable presumption that no conditions of~~

1 ~~release on bond would assure the safety of the community or any~~ 2 ~~person therein shall arise if the state shows by clear and~~ 3 ~~convincing evidence.~~

4 ~~1. The person was arrested for a violation of subsection C of~~

17 SECTION 3. AMENDATORY 22 O.S. 2011, Section 1105.2, as 18 amended by Section 1, Chapter 59, O.S.L. 2016 (22 O.S. Supp. 2018, 19 Section 1105.2), is amended to read as follows:

20 Section 1105.2. A. Following an arrest for a misdemeanor or 21 felony offense ~~and before formal charges have been filed or an~~ 22 ~~indictment made~~, the arrested person may have bail set by the court 23 as provided in ~~this act~~ Section 1105.1 et seq. of this title; 24 provided there are no provisions of law to the contrary.

1        ~~B. When formal charges or an indictment has been filed, bail~~ 2 ~~shall be set according to law and the pretrial bond, if any, may be~~ 3 ~~reaffirmed unless additional security is required~~ If not otherwise 4 released, the arrested person shall be taken without unnecessary 5 delay before the most accessible magistrate in that county for a 6 bond hearing. In no case shall the delay from arrest to bond 7 hearing be more than forty-eight (48) hours, exclusive of weekends 8 and holidays.

9        C. Except for good cause, a continuance of the bond hearing on 10 motion of the person may not exceed five (5) business days, and a 11 continuance on motion of the attorney for the state may not exceed 12 three (3) business days. At the hearing, the person shall have the 13 right to be represented by counsel and, if financially unable to 14 obtain adequate representation, to have counsel appointed for the 15 limited purpose of the hearing. In counties served by the Oklahoma 16 Indigent Defense System, attorneys employed by or contracted with 17 the Oklahoma Indigent Defense System may be appointed for the 18 limited purpose of a bond hearing without the application required 19 by Section 1355A of this title upon representation by the defendant 20 that the defendant cannot afford an attorney for the bond hearing.
21 If the court finds that the presence of counsel at the hearing is 22 impractical it may be conducted via telephone conference or video 23 call.

1        D. In cases where the most serious offense with which the 2 arrested person is charged is not a violent felony as defined in 3 Section 571 of Title 57 of the Oklahoma Statutes, domestic assault 4 and battery as defined in Sections 644, 645 and 647 of Title 21 of 5 the Oklahoma Statutes, violation of a protective order as defined in 6 Section 60.6 of this title, stalking as defined in Section 1173 of 7 Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes, or felony offenses involving 8 escape or attempt to escape from lawful arrest or confinement as 9 defined in Sections 434, 436, 443 or 444 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma 10 Statutes, the court shall release the person pending trial on the 11 person's own recognizance unless the court finds in writing or on 12 the record one or more of the following:

13        1. The person's own recognizance will not reasonably assure the 14 person's return to court. In making a finding pursuant to this 15 paragraph, the court may consider any prior record of failing to 16 appear as required in the court in the last two (2) years or in the 17 present case, or any other pending criminal case of the arrested 18 person;

19        2. The person will obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice, or 20 threaten, injure or intimidate or attempt to threaten, injure or 21 intimidate a prospective witness or juror; and 22        3. The person will engage in conduct that threatens the safety 23 of himself or herself or another person.

24

1       E. The hearing may be reopened after an initial determination 2 by the court at any time before trial if the court finds that 3 information exists that:

4           1. Was not known to the person at the time of the hearing; and 5           2. Has a material bearing on whether there are conditions of 6 release that will reasonably assure the appearance of the person as 7 required and the safety of any other person and the community.

8       F. In cases where a person is not released on his or her own 9 recognizance pursuant to subsection E of this section, the court 10 shall set appropriate conditions or shall set reasonable bail. In 11 all cases, the court shall set the least restrictive conditions 12 necessary to reasonably assure the appearance of the person.

13       G. Every judicial district may, upon the order of the presiding 14 judge for the district, establish a pretrial bail schedule for use 15 by the sheriff or other operator of the detention facility to set 16 bail prior to the initial appearance of the person before a court 17 for felony or misdemeanor offenses, ~~except for traffic.~~ Any such 18 pretrial bail schedule shall not apply to traffic offenses included 19 in subsections B, C and D of Section 1115.3 of ~~Title 22 of the~~ 20 Oklahoma Statutes ~~this title~~ and those offenses specifically 21 excluded herein. The bail schedule established pursuant to the 22 authority of ~~this act~~ Section 1105.1 et seq. of this title shall 23 exclude any offense for which bail is not allowed by law. The bail 24 schedule authorized by ~~this act~~ Section 1105.1 et seq. of this title

1 shall be set in accordance with guidelines relating to bail and 2 ~~shall be~~, published and reviewed by March 1 of each year by the 3 courts and district attorney of the judicial district, and displayed 4 in the public area of the jail.

5 ~~C.~~ H. The pretrial bail shall be set in a numerical dollar 6 amount. If the person fails to appear in court as required the 7 judge shall:

8 1. Rescind the bond and proceed to enter a judgment against the 9 defendant for the dollar amount of the pretrial bail if no private 10 bail was given at the time of release; provided, however, the court 11 clerk shall follow the procedures as set forth in Section 1301 et 12 seq. of Title 59 of the Oklahoma Statutes in collecting the 13 forfeiture amount against the person who fails to appear in court; 14 or

15 2. Rescind and forfeit the private bail if cash, property or 16 surety bail was furnished at the time of release as set forth in 17 Section 1301 et seq. of Title 59 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

18 ~~D.~~ I. When a pretrial program exists in the judicial district 19 where the person is being held, the judge may utilize the services 20 of the pretrial release program when ordering pretrial release, 21 except when private bail has been furnished.

22 ~~E.~~ J. Upon an order for pretrial release or release on bond, 23 the person shall be released from custody without undue delay.

24

1 F- K. The court may require the person to be placed on an 2 electronic monitoring device as a condition of pretrial release.

3 G- L. In instances where an electronic monitoring device has 4 been ordered, the court may impose payment of a supervision fee.
5 Payment of the fee, in whole or according to a court-ordered 6 installment schedule, shall be a condition of pretrial release. The 7 court clerk shall collect the supervision fees.

8 SECTION 4. AMENDATORY 22 O.S. 2011, Section 1105.3, as 9 last amended by Section 1, Chapter 2, O.S.L. 2018 (22 O.S. Supp.
10 2018, Section 1105.3), is amended to read as follows:

11 Section 1105.3. A. Any county pursuant to the provisions of 12 ~~this act~~ Section 1105 et seq. of this title may establish and fund a 13 pretrial program to be utilized by the district court in that 14 jurisdiction.

15 B. When a pretrial release program is established pursuant to 16 ~~this act~~ Section 1105.1 et seq. of this title and private bail has 17 not been furnished, the judge may order a person to be evaluated 18 through the pretrial program. After conducting an evaluation of the 19 person applying for pretrial release, the pretrial program shall 20 make a recommendation to the court. The recommendation shall 21 indicate any special supervisory conditions for pretrial release.
22 The judge shall consider the recommendations and ~~may grant or deny~~ 23 pretrial release shall order the least restrictive conditions that 24 will reasonably assure the person's return to court. The presiding

1 judge of the judicial district may issue a standing order outlining 2 criteria for cases that may automatically be evaluated for pretrial 3 release by a pretrial program operating in the jurisdiction. The 4 standing order may include amounts for bail and types of bonds 5 deemed appropriate for certain offenses.

10 meet the following minimum criteria:

11 1. The program shall establish a procedure for screening and 19 pretrial release;

20 2. The program shall provide reliable information to the judge
