2 STATE OF OKLAHOMA

3 2nd Session of the 57th Legislature (2020)

4 HOUSE BILL 3612

 By: O'Donnell

7 AS INTRODUCED

8 An Act relating to civil procedure; amending 12 O.S.
9 2011, Section 3233, as last amended by Section 1,
10 Chapter 313, O.S.L. 2018 (12 O.S. Supp. 2019, Section 11 3233), which relates to interrogatories; requiring 12 disclosure of certain information regarding 13 witnesses; and providing an effective date.

14 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

15 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 12 O.S. 2011, Section 3233, as 16 last amended by Section 1, Chapter 313, O.S.L. 2018 (12 O.S. Supp.
17 2019, Section 3233), is amended to read as follows:

18 Section 3233. A. AVAILABILITY; PROCEDURES FOR USE. Any party
19 may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be 20 answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or 21 private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental 22 agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information
23 as is available to that party.

1 Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in 2 writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the 3 objecting party shall state the reasons for objection and shall 4 answer to the extent the interrogatory is not objectionable. When 5 answering each interrogatory, the party shall restate the 6 interrogatory, then provide the answer. The number of 7 interrogatories to a party shall not exceed thirty in number.
8 Interrogatories inquiring as to the names ~~and~~, locations, and 9 contact information of witnesses, or the existence, location, and 10 custodian of documents or physical evidence shall be construed as 11 one interrogatory. The party responding to interrogatories
12 requesting names, locations, and contact information of witnesses
13 shall disclose full names, last-known addresses and all last-known
14 telephone numbers of such witnesses as known by or otherwise
15 available to that party. All other interrogatories, including 16 subdivisions of one numbered interrogatory, shall be construed as 17 separate interrogatories. No further interrogatories will be served 18 unless authorized by the court. If counsel for a party believes 19 that more than thirty interrogatories are necessary, counsel shall 20 consult with opposing counsel promptly and attempt to reach a 21 written stipulation as to a reasonable number of additional 22 interrogatories. Counsel are expected to comply with this 23 requirement in good faith. In the event a written stipulation 24 cannot be agreed upon, the party seeking to submit such additional

1 interrogatories shall file a motion with the court (1) showing that 2 counsel have conferred in good faith but sincere attempts to resolve 3 the issue have been unavailing, (2) showing reasons establishing 4 good cause for their use, and (3) setting forth the proposed 5 additional interrogatories. The answers are to be signed by the 6 person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making
7 them. Interrogatories may, without leave of court, be served upon 8 any party after the filing of a petition. The party upon whom the 9 interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers, 10 and objections if any, within thirty (30) days after the service of 11 the interrogatories. The 30-day response period shall not commence 12 until an answer to the petition is filed. However, upon leave of 13 court or otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties subject to 14 Section 3229 of this title, answers to interrogatories may be 15 required prior to the filing of an answer to the petition. All 16 grounds for an objection to an interrogatory shall be stated with 17 specificity. Any ground not stated in a timely objection is waived 18 unless the party's failure to object is excused by the court for 19 good cause shown. The party submitting the interrogatories may move 20 for an order under subsection A of Section 3237 of this title with 21 respect to any objection to or other failure to answer an 22 interrogatory.

23 B. SCOPE; USE AT TRIAL. Interrogatories may relate to any 24 matters which can be inquired into under subsection B of Section

1 3226 of this title, and the answers may be used to the extent
2 permitted by the Oklahoma Evidence Code as set forth in Sections
3 2101 et seq. of this title.

4 An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily 5 objectionable because an answer to the interrogatory involves an 6 opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law
7 to fact. The court may order that such an interrogatory need not be 8 answered until after designated discovery has been completed or 9 until a pretrial conference or other later time.

10 C. OPTION TO PRODUCE BUSINESS RECORDS. Where the answer to an 11 interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business
12 records, including electronically stored information, of the party
13 upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination,
14 audit or inspection of such business records, including a
15 compilation, abstract or summary thereof, and the burden of deriving
16 or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party
17 serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a 18 sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from 19 which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the 20 party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine,
21 audit or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations,
22 abstracts or summaries thereof. A specification shall be in 23 sufficient detail to permit the party submitting the interrogatory
24

1 to locate and to identify, as readily as can the party served, the 2 records from which the answer may be ascertained.

3 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2020.
