16 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

17 SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
18 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1201 of Title 18, unless there
19 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

20 A. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Oklahoma 21 Benefit Corporation Act". This act shall be applicable to all 22 benefit corporations.

23 B. The existence of a provision of this act shall not of 24 itself create an implication that a contrary or different rule is applicable to a corporation that is not a benefit corporation. This act shall not affect a statute or rule that is applicable to a corporation that is not a benefit corporation.

C. Except as otherwise provided in this act, the Oklahoma
General Corporation Act shall be generally applicable to all benefit

1 corporations that are not state banks or trust companies. A benefit 2 corporation that is not a state bank or trust company may be subject
3 simultaneously to this act and the Oklahoma General Corporation Act, 4 Professional Entity Act and other applicable business formation 5 statutes; however, the provisions of this act shall control over the 6 provisions of the Oklahoma General Corporation Act, Professional 7 Entity Act and other applicable business formation statutes where 8 there is a conflict.

9 D. Except as otherwise provided in this act, the Oklahoma
10 Banking Code shall be generally applicable to all benefit 11 corporations that are state banks or trust companies. A benefit 12 corporation that is a state bank or trust company may be subject 13 simultaneously to this act and the Oklahoma Banking Code; however, 14 the provisions of this act shall control over the provisions of the 15 Oklahoma Banking Code where there is a conflict.

16 E. A provision of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws 17 of a benefit corporation shall not limit, be inconsistent with or 18 supersede a provision of this act.

19 SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
20 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1202 of Title 18, unless there
21 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

22 As used in the Oklahoma Benefit Corporation Act:

23 1. "Benefit corporation" means:
24

1 a. a business corporation incorporated under the Oklahoma
2 General Corporation Act that is subject to this act, 3 or

4 b. a state bank or trust company incorporated under Title
5 6 of the Oklahoma Statutes that is subject to this 6 act;

7 2. "Benefit enforcement proceeding" means any claim or action 8 or proceeding for:

9 a. failure of a benefit corporation to pursue or create
10 general public benefit or a specific public benefit 11 purpose set forth in its certificate of incorporation, 12 or

13 b. violation of any obligation, duty or standard of 14 conduct under this act;

15 3. "General public benefit" means a material positive impact on 16 society and the environment, taken as a whole, assessed against a 17 third-party standard, from the business and operations of a benefit 18 corporation;

19 4. "Minimum status vote" means:

20 a. in the case of a business corporation or a state bank
21 or trust company, in addition to any other required 22 approval or vote, the satisfaction of the following 23 conditions:
24

1 (1) the shareholders of every class or series shall 2 be entitled to vote as a class on the corporate 3 action regardless of a limitation stated in the 4 certificate of incorporation or bylaws on the 5 voting rights of any class or series, and 6 (2) the corporate action shall be approved by the 7 affirmative vote of the shareholders of each 8 class or series entitled to cast at least two-9 thirds (2/3) of the votes that all shareholders 10 of the class or series are entitled to cast on 11 the action, or

12 b. in the case of a domestic entity other than a 13 corporation or state bank or trust company, in 14 addition to any other required approval, vote or 15 consent, the satisfaction of the following conditions:

16 (1) the holders of every class or series of equity 17 interest in the entity that are entitled to 18 receive a distribution of any kind from the 19 entity shall be entitled to vote on or consent to 20 the action regardless of any otherwise applicable 21 limitation on the voting or consent rights of any 22 class or series, and

23 (2) the action shall be approved by the affirmative 24 vote or consent of the holders described in

1 division (1) of this subparagraph entitled to 2 cast at least two-thirds (2/3) of the votes or 3 consents that all of those holders are entitled 4 to cast on the action; and 5 5. "Specific public benefit" includes:

- 6 a. providing low-income or underserved individuals or 7 communities with beneficial products or services,
- 8 b. promoting economic opportunity for individuals or 9 communities beyond the creation of jobs in the normal 10 course of business,
- 11 c. protecting or restoring the environment,
- 12 d. improving human health,
- 13 e. promoting the arts, sciences or advancement of 14 knowledge,
- 15 f. increasing the flow of capital to entities with a 16 purpose to benefit society or the environment, and
- 17 g. conferring any other particular benefit on society or 18 the environment.

19 SECTION 3. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
20 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1203 of Title 18, unless there
21 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

22 A. A benefit corporation that is not a state bank or trust
23 company shall be incorporated in accordance with the Oklahoma
24

1 General Corporation Act, except that its certificate of 2 incorporation shall also state that it is a benefit corporation.

3 B. A benefit corporation that is a state bank or trust company
4 shall be incorporated in accordance with the Oklahoma Banking Code, 5 except that its certificate of incorporation shall also state that 6 it is a benefit corporation.

7 SECTION 4. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
8 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1204 of Title 18, unless there
9 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

10 A. An existing business corporation may become a benefit 11 corporation under the Oklahoma Benefit Corporation Act by amending 12 its certificate of incorporation so that it contains, in addition to 13 the requirements of Title 6 or Title 18 of the Oklahoma Statutes, a 14 statement that the corporation is a benefit corporation. In order 15 to be effective, the amendment shall be adopted by at least the 16 minimum status vote.

17 B. 1. Except as provided in paragraph 2 of this subsection, if 18 a domestic entity that is not a benefit corporation is a party to a 19 merger, consolidation or conversion and the surviving, new or 20 resulting entity in the merger, consolidation or conversion is to be 21 a benefit corporation, the plan of merger, consolidation or 22 conversion shall be adopted or approved by the domestic entity by at 23 least the minimum status vote.

24

1           2. Paragraph 1 of this subsection shall not apply in the case
2 of a corporation that is a party to a merger if the shareholders of 3 the corporation are not entitled to vote on the merger pursuant to 4 Section 1083 of Title 18 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

5           SECTION 5.           NEW LAW           A new section of law to be codified
6 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1205 of Title 18, unless there
7 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

8           A. A benefit corporation may terminate its status and cease to 9 be subject to the Oklahoma Benefit Corporation Act by amending its 10 certificate of incorporation to delete the provision required by 11 Sections 3 and 4 of this act to be stated in the certificate of a 12 benefit corporation. In order to be effective, the amendment shall 13 be adopted by at least the minimum status vote.

14           B. 1. Except as provided in paragraph 2 of this subsection, if 15 a plan of merger, consolidation or conversion would have the effect 16 of terminating the status of a business corporation as a benefit 17 corporation, the plan shall be adopted by at least the minimum 18 status vote in order to be effective.

19           2. Paragraph 1 of this subsection shall not apply in the case 20 of a corporation that is a party to a merger if the shareholders of 21 the corporation are not entitled to vote on the merger.

22           3. Any sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or 23 substantially all of the assets of a benefit corporation, unless the 24 transaction is in the usual and regular course of business, shall

1 not be effective unless the transaction is approved by at least the 2 minimum status vote.

3 SECTION 6. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
4 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1206 of Title 18, unless there
5 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

6 A. A benefit corporation shall have a purpose of creating 7 general public benefit. This purpose is in addition to its purpose
8 under the Oklahoma General Corporation Act or the Oklahoma Banking
9 Code.

10 B. The certificate of incorporation of a benefit corporation 11 may identify one or more specific public benefits that it is the 12 purpose of the benefit corporation to create in addition to its 13 purposes under the Oklahoma General Corporation Act or the Oklahoma 14 Banking Code and subsection A of this section. The identification 15 of a specific public benefit under this subsection does not limit 16 the purpose of a benefit corporation to create general public 17 benefit under subsection A of this section.

18 C. The creation of general public benefit and specific public 19 benefit under subsections A and B of this section shall be in the 20 best interests of the benefit corporation.

21 D. A benefit corporation may amend its certificate of 22 incorporation to add, amend or delete the identification of a 23 specific public benefit that it is the purpose of the benefit 24

1 corporation to create. In order to be effective, the amendment
2 shall be adopted by at least the minimum status vote.

3 E. A professional corporation that is a benefit corporation
4 shall not violate the Professional Entity Act by having the purpose 5 to create general public benefit or a specific public benefit.

6 F. A state bank or trust company that is a benefit corporation 7 shall not violate the Oklahoma Banking Code by having the purpose to 8 create general public benefit or a specific public benefit, but 9 nothing in the Oklahoma Benefit Corporation Act shall eliminate, 10 diminish or supersede the duties of a benefit corporation that is a 11 state bank or trust company to operate safely and soundly in 12 accordance with applicable regulatory requirements.

13 SECTION 7. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
14 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1207 of Title 18, unless there
15 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

16 A. In discharging the duties of their respective positions and 17 in considering the best interests of the benefit corporation, the 18 board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors 19 of a benefit corporation:

- 20 1. Shall consider the effects of any action or inaction upon:
- 21 a. the shareholders of the benefit corporation,
  - 22 b. the employees and workforce of the benefit
  - 23 corporation, its subsidiaries and its suppliers,
- 24

- 1 c. the interests of customers as beneficiaries of the
2 general public benefit or a specific public benefit
3 purpose of the benefit corporation,
- 4 d. community and societal factors, including those of 5 each community in which offices or facilities of the 6 benefit corporation, its subsidiaries or its suppliers 7 are located,
- 8 e. the local and global environment,
- 9 f. the short-term and long-term interests of the benefit 10 corporation, including benefits that may accrue to the 11 benefit corporation from its long-term plans and the 12 possibility that these interests may be best served by 13 the continued independence of the benefit corporation, 14 and
- 15 g. the ability of the benefit corporation to accomplish 16 its general public benefit purpose and any specific 17 public benefit purpose; and 18 2. May consider other pertinent factors or the interests of any 19 other group that they deem appropriate; but

20 3. Need not give priority to a particular interest or factor 21 referred to in paragraph 1 or 2 of this subsection over any other 22 interest or factor unless the benefit corporation has stated in its 23 certificate of incorporation its intention to give priority to 24 certain interests or factors related to the accomplishment of its

1 general public benefit purpose or of a specific public benefit 2 purpose identified in its certificate.

3 B. The consideration of interests and factors in the manner
4 provided by subsection A of this section shall not constitute a 5 violation of the duties of directors under the Oklahoma General
6 Corporation Act or, except as provided in subsection F of Section 6 7 of this act, the Oklahoma Banking Code.

8 C. Except as provided in the certificate of incorporation or 9 bylaws, a director is not personally liable for monetary damages 10 for:

11 1. Any action or inaction in the course of performing the 12 duties of a director under subsection A of this section if the 13 director was not interested with respect to the action or inaction;
14 or

15 2. Failure of the benefit corporation to pursue or create 16 general public benefit or specific public benefit.

17 D. A director shall not have a duty to a person that is a 18 beneficiary of the general public benefit purpose or a specific 19 public benefit purpose of a benefit corporation arising from the 20 status of the person as a beneficiary.

21 E. A director who makes a business judgment in good faith 22 fulfills the duty under this section if the director:

23 1. Is not interested in the subject of the business judgment;
24

1           2. Is informed with respect to the subject of the business 2 judgment to the extent the director reasonably believes to be 3 appropriate under the circumstances; and

4           3. Rationally believes that the business judgment is in the 5 best interests of the benefit corporation.

6           SECTION 8.           NEW LAW           A new section of law to be codified
7 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1208 of Title 18, unless there
8 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

9           A. Each officer of a benefit corporation shall consider the 10 interests and factors described in paragraph 1 of subsection A of 11 Section 7 of this act in the manner provided in paragraph 3 of 12 subsection A of Section 7 of this act if:

13           1. The officer has discretion to act with respect to a matter; 14 and

15           2. It reasonably appears to the officer that the matter may 16 have a material effect on the creation by the benefit corporation of 17 general public benefit or a specific public benefit identified in 18 the certificate of incorporation of the benefit corporation.

19           B. The consideration of interests and factors in the manner 20 provided in subsection A of this section shall not constitute a 21 violation of the duties of an officer, except as provided in 22 subsection F of Section 6 of this act.

23
24

1 C. Except as provided in the certificate of incorporation or 2 bylaws, an officer shall not be personally liable for monetary 3 damages for:

4 1. An action or inaction as an officer in the course of 5 performing the duties of an officer under subsection A of this 6 section if the officer was not interested with respect to the action 7 or inaction; or

8 2. Failure of the benefit corporation to pursue or create 9 general public benefit or specific public benefit.

10 D. An officer shall not have a duty to a person that is a
11 beneficiary of the general public benefit purpose or a specific 12 public benefit purpose of a benefit corporation arising from the 13 status of the person as a beneficiary.

14 E. An officer who makes a business judgment in good faith 15 fulfills the duty under this section if the officer:

16 1. Is not interested in the subject of the business judgment;

17 2. Is informed with respect to the subject of the business 18 judgment to the extent the officer reasonably believes to be 19 appropriate under the circumstances; and

20 3. Rationally believes that the business judgment is in the 21 best interests of the benefit corporation.

22 SECTION 9. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
23 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1209 of Title 18, unless there
24 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

1       A. Except in a benefit enforcement proceeding, no person shall 2 bring an action or assert a claim against a benefit corporation or 3 its directors or officers with respect to:

4       1. Failure to pursue or create general public benefit or a 5 specific public benefit set forth in its certificate of 6 incorporation; or

7       2. Violation of an obligation, duty or standard of conduct
8 under the Oklahoma Benefit Corporation Act or the Oklahoma Banking
9 Code.

10       B. A benefit corporation shall not be liable for monetary 11 damages under the Oklahoma Benefit Corporation Act or the Oklahoma 12 Banking Code for any failure of the benefit corporation to pursue or 13 create general public benefit or a specific public benefit.

14       C. A benefit enforcement proceeding may be commenced or 15 maintained only:

16       1. Directly by the benefit corporation; or

17       2. Derivatively in accordance with the Oklahoma General 18 Corporation Act or the Oklahoma Banking Code, as applicable, by:

19       a. a person or group of persons that owned beneficially
20 or of record at least two percent (2%) of the total 21 number of shares of a class or series outstanding at 22 the time of the act or omission complained of,

23       b. a director,
24

1 c. a person or group of persons that owned beneficially 2 or of record five percent (5%) or more of the 3 outstanding equity interests in an entity of which the 4 benefit corporation is a subsidiary at the time of the 5 act or omission complained of, or

6 d. other persons as specified in the certificate of 7 incorporation or bylaws of the benefit corporation.

8 D. For purposes of this section, a person is the beneficial 9 owner of shares or equity interests if the shares or equity 10 interests are held in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of 11 the beneficial owner.

12 SECTION 10. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
13 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1210 of Title 18, unless there
14 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

15 A. A benefit corporation shall annually provide its 16 shareholders with a statement as to the corporation's promotion of 17 general public benefit and any specific public benefit identified in 18 the certificate of incorporation. The statement shall include:

19 1. The objectives the board of directors has established to 20 promote general public benefit and any specific public benefit;

21 2. The standards the board of directors has adopted to measure 22 the corporation's progress in promoting general public benefit and 23 any specific public benefit;

1           3. Objective factual information based on those standards 2 regarding the corporation's success in meeting the objectives for 3 promoting general public benefit and any specific public benefit; 4 and

5           4. An assessment of the corporation's success in meeting the 6 objectives and promoting general public benefit and any specific 7 public benefit.

8           B. The certificate of incorporation or bylaws of a benefit 9 corporation may require that the corporation:

10           1. Make the statement described in subsection A of this section 11 available to the public; and 12           2. Use a third-party standard in connection with or attain a 13 periodic third-party certification addressing the corporation's 14 promotion of general public benefit and any specific public benefit 15 identified in the certificate of incorporation.

16           C. The benefit statement and the assessment of the performance 17 of the benefit corporation in the benefit statement required by 18 subsection A of this section are not required to be audited or 19 certified by a third party.

20           D. A benefit corporation shall send its annual benefit 21 statement to each shareholder on the earlier of:

22           1. One hundred twenty (120) days following the end of the 23 fiscal year of the benefit corporation; or

24

1           2. The same time that the benefit corporation delivers any 2 other annual report to its shareholders.

3           SECTION 11. This act shall become effective November 1, 2019.
