Research Analysis

The CS for HB 1288 prohibits DHS from including in its online public database the address of any licensed family child care home. The measure also requires the department to conduct a hearing within 30 days upon receiving notice that a child care facility protests the revocation or denial of a child care license. In the event the department issues an emergency order against an individual the individual is required to comply immediately, but is to be afforded a hearing within 72 hours upon receipt of the request by the department.
