Research Analysis

The Conference Committee substitute to HB 1315 allows for the return of cork-tainted wine if the licensee notified the seller within 90 days after delivery. The measure defines “inducement” and provides specific exceptions to inducement.

The measure requires every manufacturer, wine and spirits wholesaler, beer distributor, nonresident seller, retailer, mixed beverage, caterer, public event and special event licensee that has been audited by the Tax Commission with a finding that the licensee correctly reported and kept sufficient records for audit purposes, the next subsequent audit shall be limited to records kept for one year prior to the date of such audit.
