Research Analysis

HB1317, as introduced, creates the Oklahoma 21st Century Community Learning Centers Act. HB1317 creates a revolving fund within the State Treasury to be designated as the Oklahoma 21st Century Community Learning Centers Revolving Fund and shall be a continuing fund. The fund shall consist of 10% of monies designated for common education from the tax on retail medical marijuana sales, federal funds, donations, grants, and gifts from any public or private source. HB1317 directs the State Board of Education to annually expend the funds for purposes of providing grants to public schools to assist low-income student and their families by providing out-of-school hours services, implement research-based programs, and assist students to graduate college-, career-, or citizen-ready through 21st Century Community Learning Centers. HB1317 directs the State Board of Education to determine application criteria for grants.
