Research Analysis

HB1426, as introduced, allows full time firefighters and law enforcement officers employed by a federally recognized Native American tribe to become members and accrue service credit in the Oklahoma Firefighter Pension and Retirement System and Oklahoma Police Pension and Retirement System effective July 1, 2019. Service completed by an eligible tribal firefighter or law enforcement officer prior to July 1, 2019 will not be included for the purposes of computing future benefits in either system.
