Research Analysis

HB2668, as introduced, replaces the position of the Oklahoma State Bond Advisor with a newly created position of Deputy Treasurer for Debt Management and updates references in statutes to facilitate the transfer of duties from the Oklahoma State Bond Advisor to the Deputy Treasurer for Debt Management. The measure also authorizes the State Treasurer, in tandem with the Council on Bond Oversight, to charge and collect fees derived from proceeds of bond issues approved by the council. Currently, the council can decide to collect this fee on its own.
