Research Analysis

SB 185 removes the cap on the number of special investigators the Director of OSBI can employ. The Director may hire special investigators as needed by the agency dependent on the availability of funds. The measure allows for the employment of a human resources director and a comptroller by OSBI.

Fiscal Analysis

SB 185, which allows the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) to hire any amount of special investigators (currently it's 6 in statute) subject to availability of funds, a HR director and a Comptroller, has no fiscal impact on OSBI.
