Research Analysis

SB 21 designates the ribeye steak as the state steak.

Fiscal Analysis

According to the Cattlemen’s Beef Board and the National Cattlemen’s Beef Association, “this steak is rich, juicy and full-flavored with generous marbling throughout. Sold bone-in. Due to the exceptional taste and tenderness Beef Rib Steaks deliver for operators and diners alike. Bone In Rib Steaks offer great plate coverage and impressive presentations”.

This well-done legislation offers a rare opportunity for the State of Oklahoma to designate and adopt the ribeye steak as the state steak.

No fiscal or revenue impact, but certainly a welcome impact on your taste buds.
