Bill No.:	SB 833
Version:	ENGR
Request Number:
Author:	Rep. Davis and Sen. Smalley
Date:	3/25/2019
Impact:	None; subject to the availability of funds

Research Analysis

SB 833 directs DHS to provide the Office of Child Abuse Prevention at the State Health Department the names of individuals who have had their parental rights terminated and the conditions that led up to that action. The Office is directed to include in its annual report the number of individuals with terminated parental rights who have had other children. Finally, the bill authorizes the Office to, when appropriate and if funds are available, provide an assessment of the family's needs and offer services.
