Bill Analysis

SB 1103 increases penalties associated with a person convicted of assault and battery with intent to cause great bodily harm by strangulation or attempted strangulation against an intimate partner or a family or household member. The measure removes the mandatory minimum sentence of one year for a person found to have committed assault and battery by strangulation and increases the maximum term of imprisonment to 10 years in the custody of the Department of Corrections. Additionally, the measure increases the maximum fine from $3,000.00 to $5,000.00. The measure similarly removes the minimum sentence of 3 years for a person convicted of this violation a second time, but increases the maximum sentence from 10 to 20 years imprisonment.
