Bill Analysis

SB 230 authorizes the courts to permit a person found convicted of being under the influence of alcohol or other intoxicating substances to participate in a victim's impact panel program offered online. The panel will contain at least ten personal stories of victims and offenders about how alcohol, drug abuse and illegal conduct of others has personally impacted the victims and offenders and require participants to be tested for attention and comprehension. The fee for participating in the panel is set at $150.00 by the measure. Indigent persons may attend the panels at no charge.
