Bill Analysis

SB 251 requires the Oklahoma Health Care Authority to utilize third parties to handle all administrative and legal processes directly related to medical expense recovery. Third parties will be selected by the Oklahoma Department of Insurance and must be a private entity to qualify for selection.

House Amendments

House Amendments to SB 251 amends the measure by changing the word “third party” to “third parties” and changing the entity responsible for selecting third parties from the Office of Management and Enterprise Services to the Oklahoma Department of Insurance.
