9 and 2009, as last amended by Section 5, Chapter 9,
10 1st Ex. Sess., O.S.L. 2013 (12 O.S. Supp. 2018, 11 Sections 2008 and 2009), which relate to general
12 rules and special matters; modifying requirements for 13 certain claims and averments; defining term;
14 conforming language; making language gender neutral;
15 and providing an effective date.

16 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

17 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 12 O.S. 2011, Section 2008, as 18 last amended by Section 3, Chapter 9, 1st Ex. Sess., O.S.L. 2013 (12
19 O.S. Supp. 2018, Section 2008), is amended to read as follows:

20 Section 2008.

21 GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING

22 A. CLAIMS FOR RELIEF. A pleading which sets forth a claim for 23 relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim or 24 third-party claim, shall contain:

1. A short and plain statement, made with particularity of all
25 material facts known to the pleading party that support the claim
~~showing~~, that creates a reasonable inference that the pleader is

1 plausibly entitled to relief. For the purposes of this paragraph, a
2 material fact is a fact that is necessary to the claim and without
3 which the claim could not be supported. As to facts pleaded on 4 belief, the pleading party shall set forth with particularity the 5 factual information supporting the pleading party's belief; and

6 2. A demand for judgment for the relief to which he or she
7 deems himself or herself entitled. Every pleading demanding relief
8 for damages in money in excess of the amount required for diversity
9 jurisdiction pursuant to Section 1332 of Title 28 of the United
10 States Code shall, without demanding any specific amount of money, 11 set forth only that the amount sought as damages is in excess of the 12 amount required for diversity jurisdiction pursuant to Section 1332
13 of Title 28 of the United States Code, except in actions sounding in 14 contract. Every pleading demanding relief for damages in money in 15 an amount that is required for diversity jurisdiction pursuant to 16 Section 1332 of Title 28 of the United States Code or less shall 17 specify the amount of such damages sought to be recovered. Relief
18 in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

19 B. DEFENSES; FORM OF DENIALS. A party shall state in short and 20 plain terms his or her defenses to each claim asserted and shall 21 admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If 22 he or she is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a 23 belief as to the truth of an averment, he or she shall so state and 24 this statement has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly

1 meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends
2 in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment,
3 he or she shall specify so much of it as is true and material and
4 shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good
5 faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, he 6 or she may make his or her denials as specific denials of designated 7 averments or paragraphs or he or she may generally deny all the 8 averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as he or 9 she expressly admits; but, when he or she does so intend to 10 controvert all its averments, he or she may do so by general denial
11 subject to the obligations set forth in Section 2011 of this title.

12 C. AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES. In pleading to a preceding pleading,
13 a party shall set forth affirmatively:

- 14 1. Accord and satisfaction;
- 15 2. Arbitration and award;
- 16 3. Assumption of risk;
- 17 4. Contributory negligence;
- 18 5. Discharge in bankruptcy;
- 19 6. Duress;
- 20 7. Estoppel;
- 21 8. Failure of consideration;
- 22 9. Fraud;
- 23 10. Illegality;
- 24 11. Injury by fellow servant;

- 1 12. Laches;
- 2 13. License;
- 3 14. Payment;
- 4 15. Release;
- 5 16. Res judicata;
- 6 17. Statute of frauds;
- 7 18. Statute of limitations;
- 8 19. Waiver; and
- 9 20. Any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative
- 10 defense.

11 When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a 12 counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court on terms, if 13 justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a 14 proper designation.

15 D. EFFECT OF FAILURE TO DENY. Averments in a pleading to which 16 a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount
17 of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading.
18 Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required
19 or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

20 E. ~~PLEADING TO BE CONCISE AND DIRECT~~ ALTERNATIVE STATEMENTS;
21 CONSISTENCY INCONSISTENCY.

22 ~~1. Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and~~
23 ~~direct. No technical forms of pleadings or motions are required.~~

1 party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, he or she 2 shall do so by negative averment, which shall include such
3 supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's
4 knowledge, and he or she shall have the burden of proof on that 5 issue.

6 B. FRAUD, MISTAKE, CONDITION OF THE MIND. In accordance with 7 paragraph 1 of subsection A of Section 2008 of this title, in all
8 averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud
9 or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent,
10 knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred
11 generally.

12 C. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT. In pleading the performance or 13 occurrence of conditions precedent, if the pleading otherwise
14 satisfies the requirements of paragraph 1 of subsection A of Section 15 2008 of this title, it is sufficient to aver generally that all
16 conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial
17 of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with 18 particularity.

19 D. OFFICIAL DOCUMENT OR ACT. In pleading an official document
20 or official act it is sufficient to aver that the document was 21 issued or the act done in compliance with law.

22 E. JUDGMENT. In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic 23 or foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board
24

1 or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision
2 without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

3 F. TIME AND PLACE. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency
4 of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be 5 considered like all other averments of material matter.

6 G. SPECIAL DAMAGE. When items of special damage are claimed,
7 their nature shall be specifically stated. In actions where 8 exemplary or punitive damages are sought, the petition shall not 9 state a dollar amount for damages sought to be recovered but shall 10 state whether the amount of damages sought to be recovered is in 11 excess of or not in excess of the amount required for diversity
12 jurisdiction pursuant to Section 1332 of Title 28 of the United
13 States Code.

14 H. MOTION TO CLARIFY DAMAGES. If the amount of damages sought
15 to be recovered by the plaintiff is less than the amount required
16 for diversity jurisdiction pursuant to Section 1332 of Title 28 of 17 the United States Code, the defendant may file, for purposes of 18 establishing diversity jurisdiction only, a Motion to Clarify
19 Damages prior to the pretrial order to require the plaintiff to show 20 by a preponderance of the evidence that the amount of damages, if 21 awarded, will not exceed the amount required for diversity. If the 22 court finds that any damages awarded are more likely than not to 23 exceed the amount of damages required for diversity jurisdiction, 24 the plaintiff shall amend his or her pleadings in conformance with

1 paragraph 2 of subsection A of Section 2008 of this title.

2 SECTION 3. This act shall become effective November 1, 2019.
