Research Analysis

HB 2367, as introduced, creates a new law stipulating that a child sixteen (16) years of age or older may enter into contracts to obtain housing if they receive a certification of unaccompanied status from a youth services provider with the Department of Human Services. The certification shall show that they determined the child is homeless or a victim of domestic violence or abuse. The provider is required to notify the parent or guardian that the child is seeking unaccompanied child status. Certification of this status does not discharge the parent or guardian of parental or legal authority.
