

BILL SUMMARY
2nd Session of the 58th Legislature

Bill No.:	HB 4374
Version:	Senate Amendments to House Bill
Request Number:
Author:	Rep. Ford
Date:	5/4/2022
Impact:	No direct fiscal impact anticipated

Research Analysis

The Senate amendment to HB 4374 names the act the Stephen Bernius Memorial Act and modifies the definition of "family or household members" as used in the Protection from Domestic Abuse Act and the Domestic Abuse Reporting Act to include persons not related by blood or marriage living in the same household. Provides a definition of "living in the same household" to mean persons who regularly reside in the same, single dwelling unit; persons who resided in the dwelling within the past year; or persons who have individual lease agreements where each person has their own private bedroom and shares the common areas.

Prepared By: Brad Wolgamott

Fiscal Analysis

The Senate amendments to the measure would add a section naming the measure the "Stephen Bernius Memorial Act".

Upon review, the Senate amendments do not alter the fiscal impact of the measure as passed by the House. No direct fiscal impact to the state is anticipated from passage of the measure.

Prepared By: Clayton Mayfield

Other Considerations

None.