Research Analysis

Engrossed SB 300 changes procedure relating to orders for involuntary protective services to state that when the conditions creating the emergency have been removed, then the court shall dismiss the temporary guardianship ordered. The scope of service provided by the Department of Human Services shall be limited to protective services or the establishment of eligibility of them for the person and estate. Dismissal shall be requested when an appropriate level of care for the vulnerable adult has been established, assets have been secured, and a representative payee or trustee has been established for financial management, if applicable.

Prepared By: Suzie Nahach

Fiscal Analysis

The measure modifies the temporary guardianship process for vulnerable adults.

Upon review and with consultation from the Department of Human Services, no direct impact to state revenues or expenditures is anticipated from passage of the measure.
