Research Analysis

Engrossed SB 394 exempts an automobile with an equity allowance of not more than $10,000 from the determination of resources to meet the needs for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) eligibility. Current statute exempts automobiles with an equity allowance of not more than $5,000. Additionally, the measure changes language to acknowledge from the Commission for Human Services to the Director of Human Services as it relates to rule promulgation.

Fiscal Analysis

OKDHS does not expect the number of families eligible for TANF to increase significantly upon passage of this bill so the fiscal cost is projected to be minimal and easily absorbed in the TANF budget.
