Bill Analysis

SB 1118 removes language specifying that a National Guardsman who was discharged from the Guard within the last 20 years who received firearm training shall exempt from all or part of the required training and qualification course. Any National Guardsman who is a resident of the state and was discharged from the Guard shall qualify for the exemption. Additionally, the measure provides that any person who qualifies for the exemption may carry a concealed or unconcealed firearm under the authority of the Oklahoma Self-Defense Act.
