Bill Analysis

SB 1122 modifies existing law regulating the discharge of a firearm from a vessel. The measure provides that firearms may be discharged from a vessel for the purpose of self-defense and removes the minimum fine of $50.00. Additionally, the measure removes the minimum 10-day imprisonment and reduces the maximum period of imprisonment from 6 months to 3 months. The measure also strikes obsolete language relating to the Oklahoma Self-Defense Act.
