Bill Analysis

SB 1758 requires any written notice of claim of relief demanding relief from personal injuries to list the name and address of all health care providers who treated the claimant since the date and time of the claimant's injury. Claimants must also provide a HIPPA compliant authorization for release of health information for each health care provider identified. Any written notice of claim of relief for loss of wages must include documentation of the loss of earnings since the date and time of the lost earnings. Written notice of claim of relief for property loss must include the amount of the property loss claimed, the method used to calculate the amount of loss, documentation relied upon in determining the amount of loss, and proof of the claimant's ownership of property.
