11 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

12 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 12 O.S. 2021, Section 2012, is 13 amended to read as follows:

14 Section 2012.

15 DEFENSES AND OBJECTIONS; WHEN AND HOW PRESENTED;

16 BY PLEADING OR MOTION

17 A. WHEN PRESENTED. 1. Unless a different time is prescribed 18 by law, a defendant shall serve an answer:

19 a. within twenty (20) days after the service of the 20 summons and petition upon the defendant,

21 b. within twenty (20) days after the service of the 22 summons and petition upon the defendant, or within the 23 last day for answering if applicable; provided, a 24 defendant may file a reservation of time which shall

1 extend the time to respond twenty (20) days from the 2 last date for answering. The filing of such a 3 reservation of time waives defenses of paragraphs 2, 4 3, 4, 5, 6, and 9 of subsection B of this section.

5 2. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against 6 that party shall serve an answer thereto within twenty (20) days 7 after the service upon the party.

8 3. The plaintiff shall serve a reply to a counterclaim in the 9 answer within twenty (20) days after service of the answer or, if a 10 reply is ordered by the court, within twenty (20) days after service 11 of the order, unless the order otherwise directs.

12 4. The party requesting a summons to be issued or filing a 13 ~~counter-claim~~ counterclaim or cross-claim may elect to have the 14 answer served within thirty-five (35) days in lieu of the twenty 15 (20) days set forth in this section.

16 5. The service of a motion permitted under this section or a 17 motion for summary judgment alters these periods of time as follows: 18 if the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until 19 the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served 20 within twenty (20) days after notice of the court's action, unless a 21 different time is fixed by order of the court.

22 B. HOW PRESENTED. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim 23 for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-24 claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive

1 pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following 2 defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion:

- 3 1. Lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter;
- 4 2. Lack of jurisdiction over the person;
- 5 3. Improper venue;
- 6 4. Insufficiency of process;
- 7 5. Insufficiency of service of process;
- 8 6. Failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted;
- 9 7. Failure to join a party under Section 2019 of this title;
- 10 8. Another action pending between the same parties for the same 11 claim;
- 12 9. Lack of capacity of a party to be sued; and
- 13 10. Lack of capacity of a party to sue.

14 A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before 15 pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or 16 objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses
17 or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading 18 sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not 19 required to serve a responsive pleading, the adverse party may 20 assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for 21 relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered in paragraph 22 6 of this subsection to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state 23 a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the 24 pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion

1 shall be treated as one for summary judgment and all parties shall 2 be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made 3 pertinent to the motion by the rules for summary judgment. A motion 4 to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be 5 granted shall separately state each omission or defect in the 6 petition, and a motion that does not specify such defects or 7 omissions shall be denied without a hearing and the defendant shall 8 answer within twenty (20) days after notice of the court's action.

9 C. PRELIMINARY HEARINGS. The defenses specifically enumerated 10 in paragraphs 1 through 10 of subsection B of this section, whether 11 made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion to strike mentioned 12 in subsection D of this section shall be heard and determined before 13 trial on application of any party, unless the court orders that the 14 hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial. If 15 the court determines that venue is proper, the action shall not be 16 dismissed for improper venue as a result of the jury's verdict or 17 the subsequent ruling of the court on a demurrer to the evidence or 18 a motion for a directed verdict.

19 D. MOTION TO STRIKE. Upon motion made by a party before 20 responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted 21 by this act, upon motion made by a party within twenty (20) days 22 after the service of the pleading upon the party or upon the court's 23 own initiative at any time, the court may order stricken from any 24 pleading any insufficient defense. If, on a motion to strike an

1 insufficient defense, matters outside the pleadings are presented to 2 and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one 3 for partial summary judgment and all parties shall be given 4 reasonable opportunity to present all materials made pertinent to 5 the motion by the rules for summary judgment.

6 E. CONSOLIDATION OF DEFENSES IN MOTION. A party who makes a 7 motion under this section may join with it any other motions herein
8 provided for and then available to the party. If a party makes a 9 motion under this section but omits therefrom any defense or 10 objection then available to the party which this section permits to 11 be raised by motion, the party shall not thereafter make a motion 12 based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as 13 provided in paragraph 2 of subsection F of this section on the 14 grounds there stated. The court in its discretion may permit a 15 party to amend a motion by stating additional defenses or objections 16 if an amendment is sought at least five (5) days before the hearing 17 on the motion.

18 F. WAIVER OR PRESERVATION OF CERTAIN DEFENSES.

19 1. A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, improper 20 venue, insufficiency of process, insufficiency of service of 21 process, failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, 22 or lack of capacity of a party to be sued is waived:
23
24

- 1 a. if omitted from a motion that raises any of the 2 defenses or objections which this section permits to 3 be raised by motion, or 4 b. if it is not made by motion and it is not included in 5 a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof
6 permitted by subsection A of Section 2015 of this 7 title to be made as a matter of course. A motion to 8 strike an insufficient defense is waived if not raised 9 as in subsection D of this section.

10 2. A defense of failure to join a party indispensable under 11 Section 2019 of this title may be made in any pleading permitted or 12 ordered under subsection A of Section 2007 of this title or at the 13 trial on the merits. A defense of another action pending between 14 the same parties for the same claim or a defense of lack of capacity 15 of a party to sue may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered 16 pursuant to the provisions of subsection A of Section 2007 of this 17 title or at the pretrial conference.

18 3. Whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or 19 otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, 20 the court shall dismiss the action.

21 4. A waiver of the defense in paragraph 6 of subsection B of 22 this section does not preclude a later contention that a party is 23 not entitled to any relief as a matter of law, either by motion for 24 summary judgment, or by demurrer or motion at or after trial.

1 G. FINAL DISMISSAL ON FAILURE TO AMEND. On granting a motion
2 to dismiss a claim for relief, the court shall grant leave to amend 3 if the defect can be remedied and shall specify the time within 4 which an amended pleading shall be filed. If the amended pleading 5 is not filed within the time allowed, final judgment of dismissal 6 with prejudice shall be entered on motion except in cases of 7 excusable neglect. In such cases amendment shall be made by the 8 party in default within a time specified by the court for filing an 9 amended pleading. Within the time allowed by the court for filing 10 an amended pleading, a plaintiff may voluntarily dismiss the action 11 without prejudice.

12 H. MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT NOT REQUIRED IF DEFENDANT FAILS
13 TO FILE RESPONSE. Nothing in any provision of this title or in any 14 local or district court rule shall be construed to require either a 15 motion or a hearing for default judgment, and no notice shall be 16 necessary, if, after service of summons and petition, a defendant 17 fails to timely file with the court clerk within twenty (20) days a 18 written appearance, answer, motion, pleading, or response as 19 provided in subsection A of this section. Contact or communication 20 with the plaintiff or attorney of the plaintiff shall not constitute 21 an appearance, answer, motion, pleading, or response unless the 22 contact or communication is in writing and is also timely filed by 23 the defendant in writing with the court clerk as provided in 24 subsection A of this section. The provisions of this subsection

1 shall not be construed to prevent an evidentiary hearing concerning 2 the amount of damages to be awarded.

3 SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 12 O.S. 2021, Section 727.1, is
4 amended to read as follows:

5 Section 727.1

6 POSTJUDGMENT INTEREST

7 A. 1. Except as otherwise provided by this section, all 8 judgments of courts of record, including costs and attorney fees 9 authorized by statute or otherwise and allowed by the court, shall 10 bear interest at a rate prescribed pursuant to this section. Such 11 interest shall also apply to the amounts collected on any judgment 12 enforced during the pendency of an appeal which is subsequently 13 overturned on appeal when restitution is paid to the defendant.

14 2. Costs and attorney fees allowed by the court shall bear 15 interest from the earlier of the date the judgment or order is 16 pronounced, if expressly stated in the written judgment or order 17 awarding the costs and attorney fees, or the date the judgment or 18 order is filed with the court clerk.

19 B. Judgments, including costs and attorney fees authorized by 20 statute or otherwise and allowed by the court, against this state or 21 its political subdivisions, including counties, municipalities, 22 school districts, and public trusts of which this state or a 23 political subdivision of this state is a beneficiary, shall bear 24 interest during the term of judgment at a rate prescribed pursuant

1 to this section from the date of rendition. No judgment against 2 this state or its political subdivisions, including counties, 3 municipalities, school districts, and public trusts of which this 4 state or a political subdivision of this state is a beneficiary, 5 inclusive of postjudgment interest, shall exceed the total amount of 6 liability of the governmental entity pursuant to The Governmental 7 Tort Claims Act.

8 C. The postjudgment interest authorized by subsection A or 9 subsection B of this section shall accrue from the earlier of the 10 date the judgment is rendered as expressly stated in the judgment, 11 or the date the judgment is filed with the court clerk, and shall 12 initially accrue at the rate in effect for the calendar year during 13 which the judgment is rendered until the end of the calendar year in 14 which the judgment was rendered, or until the judgment is paid, 15 whichever first occurs. Beginning on January 1 of the next 16 succeeding calendar year until the end of that calendar year, or 17 until the judgment is paid, whichever first occurs, the judgment, 18 together with postjudgment interest previously accrued, shall bear 19 interest at the rate in effect for judgments rendered during that 20 calendar year as certified by the Administrative Director of the 21 Courts pursuant to subsection I of this section. For each 22 succeeding calendar year, or part of a calendar year, during which a 23 judgment remains unpaid, the judgment, together with postjudgment 24 interest previously accrued, shall bear interest at the rate in

1 effect for judgments rendered during that calendar year as certified
2 by the Administrative Director of the Courts pursuant to subsection
3 I of this section. A separate computation using the interest rate 4 in effect for judgments as provided by subsection I of this section 5 shall be made for each calendar year, or part of a calendar year, 6 during which the judgment remains unpaid in order to determine the 7 total amount of interest for which the judgment debtor is liable.
8 The postjudgment interest rate for each calendar year or part of a 9 calendar year a judgment remains unpaid shall be multiplied by the 10 original amount of the judgment, including any prejudgment interest, 11 together with postjudgment interest previously accrued. Interest 12 shall accrue on a judgment in the manner prescribed by this 13 subsection until the judgment is satisfied or released.

14 D. If a rate of interest is specified in a contract, the rate 15 specified shall apply and be stated in the journal entry of 16 judgment. The rate of interest shall not exceed the lawful rate for 17 that obligation. Postjudgment interest shall be calculated at the 18 contractual rate and accrued in the same manner as prescribed in 19 subsection C of this section.

20 PREJUDGMENT INTEREST

21 E. Except as provided by subsection F of this section, 22 beginning November 1, 2009, if a verdict for damages by reason of 23 personal injuries or injury to personal rights including, but not 24 limited to, injury resulting from bodily restraint, personal insult,

1 | defamation, invasion of privacy, injury to personal relations, or
2 | detriment due to an act or omission of another is accepted by the
3 | trial court, the court in rendering judgment shall add interest on 4 | the verdict at a rate prescribed pursuant to subsection I of this 5 | section from the date which is twenty-four (24) months after the 6 | suit resulting in the judgment was commenced to the earlier of the 7 | date the verdict is accepted by the trial court as expressly stated
8 | in the judgment, or the date the judgment is filed with the court
9 | clerk. No prejudgment interest shall begin to accrue until twenty-
10 | four (24) months after the suit resulting in the judgment was
11 | commenced. The interest rate for computation of prejudgment
12 | interest shall begin with the rate prescribed by subsection I of 13 | this section which is in effect for the calendar year which is 14 | twenty-four (24) months after the suit resulting in the judgment was 15 | commenced. This rate shall be in effect until the end of the 16 | calendar year in which interest begins to accrue or until the date
17 | judgment is filed, whichever first occurs. Beginning on January 1
18 | of the next succeeding calendar year until the end of that calendar
19 | year, or until the date the judgment is filed, whichever first
20 | occurs, and for each succeeding calendar year thereafter, the
21 | prejudgment interest rate shall be the rate in effect for judgments
22 | rendered during each calendar year as certified by the
23 | Administrative Director of the Courts pursuant to subsection I of 24 | this section. After the computation of all prejudgment interest has

1 | been completed, the total amount of prejudgment interest shall be
2 | added to the amount of the judgment rendered pursuant to the trial
3 | of the action, and the total amount of the resulting judgment shall
4 | become the amount upon which postjudgment interest is computed
5 | pursuant to subsection A of this section.

6 | F. If a verdict of the type described by subsection E of this
7 | section is rendered against this state or its political
8 | subdivisions, including counties, municipalities, school districts,
9 | and public trusts of which this state or a political subdivision of 10 | this state is a beneficiary, the judgment shall bear interest at the 11 | rate prescribed pursuant to subsection I of this section from the 12 | date the suit was commenced to the earlier of the date the verdict
13 | is accepted by the trial court as expressly stated in the judgment
14 | or the date the judgment is filed with the court clerk. The
15 | interest rate for computation of prejudgment interest shall begin
16 | with the rate prescribed by subsection I of this section which is in 17 | effect for the calendar year in which the suit resulting in the 18 | judgment is commenced. This rate shall be in effect until the end
19 | of the calendar year in which the suit resulting in judgment was
20 | filed or until the date the judgment is rendered as expressly stated
21 | in the judgment, whichever first occurs. Beginning on January 1 of 22 | the next succeeding calendar year until the end of that calendar
23 | year, or until the date judgment is rendered, whichever first
24 | occurs, and for each succeeding calendar year thereafter, the

1 prejudgment interest rate shall be the rate in effect for judgments
2 rendered during each calendar year as certified by the
3 Administrative Director of the Courts pursuant to subsection I of 4 this section. After the computation of prejudgment interest has 5 been completed, the amount shall be added to the amount of the 6 judgment rendered pursuant to the trial of the action, and the total 7 amount of the resulting judgment shall become the amount upon which 8 postjudgment interest is computed pursuant to subsection B of this 9 section. No award of prejudgment interest against this state or its 10 political subdivisions, including counties, municipalities, school 11 districts, and public trusts of which this state or a political 12 subdivision of this state is a beneficiary, including the amount of 13 the judgment awarded pursuant to trial of the action, shall exceed 14 the total amount of liability of the governmental entity pursuant to 15 The Governmental Tort Claims Act.

16 G. If exemplary or punitive damages are awarded in an action 17 for personal injury or injury to personal rights including, but not 18 limited to, injury resulting from bodily restraint, personal insult, 19 defamation, invasion of privacy, injury to personal relations, or 20 detriment due to an act or omission of another, the interest on that 21 award shall begin to accrue from the earlier of the date the 22 judgment is rendered as expressly stated in the judgment, or the 23 date the judgment is filed with the court clerk.

24

1 H. If a judgment is rendered establishing the existence of a 2 lien against property and no rate of interest exists, the court 3 shall allow prejudgment interest at a rate prescribed pursuant to 4 subsection I of this section from the date the lien is filed to the 5 date of verdict.

6 I. For purposes of computing postjudgment interest as 7 authorized by this section, interest shall be the prime rate, as 8 listed in the first edition of the Wall Street Journal published for 9 each calendar year and as certified to the Administrative Director 10 of the Courts by the State Treasurer on the first regular business 11 day following publication in January of each year, plus two percent 12 (2%). For purposes of computing prejudgment interest as authorized 13 by this section, interest shall be determined using a rate equal to 14 the average United States Treasury Bill rate of the preceding 15 calendar year as certified to the Administrative Director of the 16 Courts by the State Treasurer on the first regular business day in 17 January of each year.

18 J. For purposes of computing postjudgment interest, the 19 provisions of this section shall be applicable to all judgments of 20 the district courts rendered on or after January 1, 2005. Effective 21 January 1, 2005, the method for computing postjudgment interest 22 prescribed by this section shall be applicable to all judgments 23 remaining unpaid rendered prior to January 1, 2005.

24

1 K. For purposes of computing prejudgment interest, the 2 provisions of this section shall be applicable to all actions which 3 are filed in the district courts on or after January 1, 2010, for 4 which an award of prejudgment interest is authorized by the 5 provisions of this section.

6 SECTION 3. This act shall become effective November 1, 2023.
