

BILL SUMMARY
1st Session of the 59th Legislature

Bill No.:	HB 1795
Version:	INT
Request Number:	5241
Author:	Rep. Osburn
Date:	2/28/2023
Impact:	$300,000-$500,000/year

Research Analysis

HB 1795, as introduced, creates the "Sergeant CJ Nelson Legacy Act." The measure provides that children of police officers, emergency medical technicians, and firefighters who have died in the line of duty will not be charged fees or room and board at any state college or university. The waiver will be limited to a period of five years.

Fiscal Analysis

The long-term fiscal impact will be contingent upon how many students are eligible for the benefit and will utilize it. Based upon the available data on fallen first responders, it is anticipated that this may apply to 10-15 individuals on an annual basis. Below is a breakdown of the averages of mandatory costs associated with each of the three tiers of Oklahoma's higher education institutions.
