Research Analysis

The conference committee substitute for HB2391 makes commercial litigation funding agreements subject to discovery upon request. The disclosure must include a certification by sworn affidavit by the producing party as to whether a foreign state is, has been or will be a source of funding for the agreement. The certification must also include an admission or denial as to whether the party is under the control or direction of an entity controlled by a foreign adversary and whether or not any nonpublic information arising from the litigation will be disclosed to a foreign adversary.

Fiscal Analysis

This measure provides that certain disclosures be made in consumer litigation agreements without the need for discovery requests. In its current form, HB2391 is not anticipated to have an impact on state budget or appropriations.

The CCS to the measure does not create fiscal impact.
