Research Analysis

The proposed committee substitute for HB 2738 requires county election boards to continuously accumulate and list election results as precinct returns are received.

Prepared By: Suzie Nahach

Fiscal Analysis

HB 2738 adds the word "continuously" for county election boards to accumulate precinct returns. Per the State Election Board (SEB), this measure does not change the requirement of current law; therefore, this measure has no direct fiscal or revenue considerations for the state.
