Research Analysis

The PCS to HB 2869 allows CLEET to suspend or revoke the certification of a peace officer for actions that result in termination from employment for the violation of municipal policy, state or federal law, regarding use of force, or a finding of untruthfulness in the exercise of official duties by a prosecuting authority, federal, state, or municipal judge. The measure also provides that a peace officer is subject to disciplinary action upon a finding of untruthfulness in the exercise of official duties by a preponderance of evidence by a state, federal, or municipal judge.
