Research Analysis

SB 1456 directs the Court of Civil Appeals to establish the Court of Existing Claims (CEC) division to have jurisdiction over all workers' compensation claims filed before February 1, 2014. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court will appoint one judge who currently serves as a member of the Court of Civil Appeals on a rotational basis to make up the CEC as an additional duty. The appointment will be a two-year term that coincides with the Chief Justice's term. The CEC must contract with the Oklahoma Workers' Compensation Commission to pay for the integration, maintenance, and upgrade of its case management and records system.
