Research Analysis

The engrossed version of SB 330 modifies the applicability of the Contingency Review Board's review of any agreement signed by the University Hospitals Trust.

The measure requires the Board to review any agreement signed by the Trust as it applies to a hospital or hospitals owned by the University Hospitals Authority, and clarifies that the language cannot be construed to affect or abrogate any agreement approved prior to the effective date.

Fiscal Analysis

According to the University Hospital Authority (UHA), this measure allows for it to amend agreements with the hospital or hospital it owns only to adjust the payment UHA or the University Hospital Trust receives. While these changes will allow UHA to adjust more quickly to various market changes, there is no direct fiscal impact to the state.
