Bill Analysis

SB 1253 prohibits any person from occupying a camp ground marked as “Reserved” by Oklahoma Tourism and Recreation Department staff or by the park reservation system. Persons occupying such areas must vacate the campsite within a reasonable time after being notified of the campsite’s reserved status by Department staff. Violators will be fined $50.00 for the first offense, $100.00 for the second offense, and $250.00 for third and subsequent offenses. Monies collected in this manner shall be deposited in the Oklahoma Tourism and Recreation Department Revolving Fund.
