Bill Analysis

SB 1493 directs the State Auditor and Inspector to conduct a performance audit of spending on homeless programs and services in the state. The audit shall include state spending as well as political subdivision spending. The measure requires all local governments to cooperate with the audit and grant access, at no cost, to all financial records and other programmatic information necessary to the completion of the performance audit. The audit's conclusions shall be submitted to the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Speaker of the House, Governor, and Lieutenant Governor no later than December 31, 2024.
