Bill Analysis

SB 202 creates the Women's Bill of Rights. The measure provides that any policy that prohibits sex discrimination shall be construed to forbid unfair treatment of females or males in relation to similarly situated members of the opposite sex. The measure specifies that state or its political subdivisions shall not be prohibited from establishing distinctions between sexes when such distinctions are substantially related to an important government objective including but not limited to biology, privacy, safety, or fairness.

CCR Changes

The Conference Committee Report for SB 202 completely replaces engrossed language with the language described above.
