Bill Analysis

SB 233 directs the Department of Human Services to requests a complainant to provide his or name and contact information as it relates to childcare facilities. The Department is prohibited from conducting an investigation if the complainant does not provide his or her name and contact information, unless the complaint alleges a violation that poses a potential risk to the health, safety, or well-being of a child, in which case the Department is required to immediately conduct an investigation regardless of whether or not the complainant provided his or her name and contact information.
