Bill Analysis

SB 420 increases the time to file for a claim of injury or death from 1 year to 5 years as it relates to the Oklahoma Crime Victims Compensation Act. The measure also strikes the requirement to report the crime to a law enforcement officer with 72 hours of the occurrence. The maximum compensation paid to victims is increased from $20,000.00 to $40,000.00 for a single victim and from $40,000.00 to $80,000.00 for all victims that sustained economic injury in the commission of a particular crime.
