Bill Analysis

SB 892 authorizes cities and towns to enact and enforce ordinances prohibiting and penalizing purchases of tobacco products by persons under the age of 21. The measure establishes a maximum fine of $200.00 and provides that violators shall complete an educational program designed to deter the unlawful conduct. The measure authorizes municipal judges to make referrals if services are needed by the offender. The judge may require community service, services for the offender, or programming to meet the needs of the offender.
