BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 24A.40 of Title 51, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

1 A. There is hereby established in the Office of the Attorney
2 General the Public Access Counselor Unit.

3 B. A person whose request to inspect or copy a public record is 4 denied by a public body, except the Legislature and committees,
5 commissions, and agencies thereof, may file a request for review
6 with the Public Access Counselor not later than thirty (30) calendar 7 days after the date of the denial. The request for review shall be 8 in writing on a form prescribed by the Attorney General and signed 9 by the requester, and shall include:

- 10 1. A copy of the request for access to records; and
- 11 2. Any responses from the public body.

12 C. A person whose request to inspect or copy a public record
13 was treated by the public body as a request for a commercial purpose 14 may file a request for review with the Public Access Counselor for 15 the limited purpose of reviewing whether the public body properly 16 determined that the request was made for a commercial purpose.

17 D. A person whose request to inspect or copy a public record 18 has not been returned in a prompt or reasonable manner may file a 19 request for review with the Public Access Counselor.

20 E. No person whose request to inspect or copy a public record 21 is made for a commercial purpose may file a request for review with 22 the Public Access Counselor.

23 F. Upon receipt of a request for review, the Public Access 24 Counselor shall determine whether further action is warranted. If

1 the Public Access Counselor determines that the alleged violation is 2 unfounded, they shall advise the requester and the public body and
3 no further action shall be undertaken. In all other cases, the 4 Public Access Counselor shall forward a copy of the request for 5 review to the public body within seven (7) business days after 6 receipt and shall specify the records or other documents that the 7 public body shall furnish to facilitate the review. Within seven 8 (7) business days after receipt of the request for review, the 9 public body shall fully cooperate and provide a written response to 10 the Public Access Counselor. To the extent that records or 11 documents produced by a public body contain information claimed to 12 be confidential or exempt from disclosure under the Oklahoma Open 13 Records Act, the Public Access Counselor shall not further disclose 14 that information.

15 G. 1. The Attorney General shall examine the request and 16 response and shall issue to the public body or public official, or 17 both, an advisement in response to the request for review within 18 sixty (60) calendar days after its receipt. Additionally, the 19 Attorney General shall notify the requester when the office has 20 completed its review.

21 2. Upon receipt of an advisement, the public body shall either 22 take necessary action promptly and reasonably to comply with the 23 Oklahoma Open Records Act or shall respond to the requester. If the 24 advisement concludes that no additional response is required, the

1 requester may file suit in the proper district court against the 2 public body of which the request was made.

3 3. A public body that discloses records in accordance with 4 advice of the Attorney General is immune from all liabilities by 5 reason thereof and shall not be liable for penalties under this act.

6 H. If the requester files suit under Section 24A.17 of Title 51
7 of the Oklahoma Statutes with respect to the same denial that is the 8 subject of a pending request for review, the requester shall notify 9 the Public Access Counselor, and the Public Access Counselor shall 10 take no further action with respect to the request for review and 11 shall so notify the public body.

12 I. The Attorney General may issue advisory opinions to advise 13 public bodies regarding compliance with this act. A review may be 14 initiated upon receipt of a written request from the head of the 15 public body or its attorney, which shall contain sufficient accurate
16 facts from which a determination can be made. The Public Access 17 Counselor may request additional information from the public body in 18 order to assist in the review. A public body that relies in good 19 faith on the advice of the Attorney General in responding to a 20 request is not liable for penalties under this act if the facts upon 21 which the advice is based have been fully and fairly disclosed to 22 the Public Access Counselor.

23 J. If the Public Access Counselor finds that a person 24 requesting review of an agency's action pursuant to subsections B,

1 C, or D of this section has submitted multiple frivolous requests, 2 the Public Access Counselor may deny future requests for review.

3 K. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Attorney
4 General shall not be required to produce pursuant to Section 24A.5
5 of Title 51 of the Oklahoma Statutes, the following:

6 1. Any records provided under this section to the Office of the 7 Attorney General by another public body;

8 2. Any correspondence between the Office of the Attorney 9 General and the public body related to advice under this section; or 10 3. Any work papers or product of the Office of the Attorney 11 General in carrying out the duties required by this section.

12 L. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the 13 Attorney General from enforcing or taking action regarding the 14 Oklahoma Open Records Act.

15 SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 74 O.S. 2021, Section 18b, as last 16 amended by Section 1, Chapter 296, O.S.L. 2022 (74 O.S. Supp. 2022, 17 Section 18b), is amended to read as follows:

18 Section 18b. A. The duties of the Attorney General as the 19 chief law officer of the state shall be:

14 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

15 SECTION 4. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
16 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 24A.40 of Title 51, unless there
17 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

18 A. There is hereby established in the Office of the Attorney
19 General the position of Public Access Counselor.

20 B. A person whose request to inspect or copy a public record is 21 denied by a public body, except the Legislature and committees,
22 commissions, and agencies thereof, may file a request for review
23 with the Public Access Counselor not later than sixty (60) days 24

1 after the date of the final denial. The request for review must be 2 in writing, signed by the requester, and include:

- 3 1. A copy of the request for access to records; and
- 4 2. Any responses from the public body.

5 C. A person whose request to inspect or copy a public record is 6 made for a commercial purpose may not file a request for review with 7 the Public Access Counselor. A person whose request to inspect or 8 copy a public record was treated by the public body as a request for 9 a commercial purpose may file a request for review with the Public 10 Access Counselor for the limited purpose of reviewing whether the 11 public body properly determined that the request was made for a 12 commercial purpose.

13 D. Upon receipt of a request for review, the Public Access 14 Counselor shall determine whether further action is warranted. If 15 the Public Access Counselor determines that the alleged violation is 16 unfounded, they shall advise the requester and the public body and 17 no further action shall be undertaken. In all other cases, the 18 Public Access Counselor shall forward a copy of the request for 19 review to the public body within seven (7) business days after 20 receipt and shall specify the records or other documents that the 21 public body shall furnish to facilitate the review. Within seven 22 (7) business days after receipt of the request for review, the 23 public body shall provide copies of records requested and shall 24 otherwise fully cooperate with the Public Access Counselor. If a

1 public body fails to furnish specified records pursuant to this act, 2 or if otherwise necessary, the Attorney General may issue a subpoena
3 to any person or public body having knowledge of or records
4 pertaining to a request for review of a denial of access to records 5 under the act. To the extent that records or documents produced by 6 a public body contain information claimed to be exempt from 7 disclosure under the Oklahoma Open Records Act, the Public Access 8 Counselor shall not further disclose that information.

9 E. Within seven (7) business days after it receives a copy of a 10 request for review and request for production of records from the 11 Public Access Counselor, the public body may, but is not required 12 to, answer the allegations of the request for review. The answer 13 may take the form of a letter, brief, or memorandum. The Public
14 Access Counselor shall forward a copy of the answer to the person 15 submitting the request for review, with any alleged confidential 16 information to which the request pertains redacted from the copy.
17 The requester may, but is not required to, respond in writing to the 18 answer within seven (7) business days and shall provide a copy of 19 the response to the public body.

20 F. In addition to the request for review, and the answer and 21 the response thereto, if any, a requester or a public body may 22 furnish affidavits or records concerning any matter germane to the 23 review.

1 G. Unless the Public Access Counselor extends the time by no 2 more than 30 business days by sending written notice to the 3 requester and the public body that includes a statement of the 4 reasons for the extension in the notice, or decides to address the 5 matter without the issuance of a binding opinion, the Attorney 6 General shall examine the issues and the records, shall make 7 findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall issue to the 8 requester and the public body an opinion in response to the request
9 for review within sixty (60) days after its receipt. The opinion 10 shall be binding upon both the requester and the public body.

11 In responding to any request under this act, the Attorney 12 General may exercise their discretion and choose to resolve a 13 request for review by mediation or by means other than the issuance 14 of a binding opinion. The decision not to issue a binding opinion 15 shall not be reviewable.

16 Upon receipt of a binding opinion concluding that a violation of 17 this act has occurred, the public body shall either take necessary 18 action immediately to comply with the directive of the opinion or 19 shall file suit in the proper district court. If the opinion
20 concludes that no violation of the act has occurred, the requester 21 may file suit in the proper district court.

22 A public body that discloses records in accordance with an 23 opinion of the Attorney General is immune from all liabilities by 24 reason thereof and shall not be liable for penalties under this act.

1 H. If the requester files suit under Section 24A.17 of Title 51
2 of the Oklahoma Statutes with respect to the same denial that is the 3 subject of a pending request for review, the requester shall notify 4 the Public Access Counselor, and the Public Access Counselor shall 5 take no further action with respect to the request for review and 6 shall so notify the public body.

7 I. The Attorney General may also issue advisory opinions to 8 public bodies regarding compliance with this act. A review may be 9 initiated upon receipt of a written request from the head of the 10 public body or its attorney, which shall contain sufficient accurate
11 facts from which a determination can be made. The Public Access
12 Counselor may request additional information from the public body in 13 order to assist in the review. A public body that relies in good 14 faith on an advisory opinion of the Attorney General in responding 15 to a request is not liable for penalties under this act, so long as 16 the facts upon which the opinion is based have been fully and fairly 17 disclosed to the Public Access Counselor.

18 SECTION 5. This act shall become effective November 1, 2023.
