2 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 2388 of Title 68, unless there
3 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

4 As used in the Inhofe Disaster Savings Account Act:

5 1. "Disaster Savings Account" means a regular savings account 6 or money market account established by an insurance policyholder for 7 residential property in this state to cover an insurance deductible
8 under an insurance policy for the taxpayer's primary residence that 9 covers hurricanes, rising floodwaters, tornadoes, hail, or other 10 catastrophic windstorm event damage, or by an individual to cover 11 self-insured losses for the taxpayer's primary residence from 12 hurricanes, rising floodwaters, tornadoes, hail, or other
13 catastrophic windstorm event. The account may also cover costs
14 incurred in proactively protecting the taxpayer's primary residence
15 from hurricanes, rising floodwaters, tornadoes, hail, or other 16 catastrophic windstorm event damage. The account must be labeled as 17 a Disaster Savings Account to qualify as a Disaster Savings Account
18 as defined in this paragraph. A taxpayer shall establish only one 19 Disaster Savings Account and shall specify that the purpose of the 20 account is to cover the amount of insurance deductible and other 21 uninsured portions of risks of loss from hurricanes, rising
22 floodwaters, tornadoes, hail, or other catastrophic windstorm event
23 and costs incurred in proactively protecting the taxpayer's primary 24

1 residence from hurricanes, rising floodwaters, tornadoes, hail, or 2 other catastrophic windstorm event damage;

3 2. "Qualified disaster expenses" means expenses paid or 4 incurred by reason of a major disaster that has been declared by the 5 President of the United States or the Governor of the State of 6 Oklahoma to be an emergency by executive order; and

7 3. "Qualified deductible" means the deductible for the 8 individual's homeowner's policy for a taxpayer's primary residence.

9 SECTION 3. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
10 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 2389 of Title 68, unless there
11 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

12 A. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2026, an 13 individual is allowed a deduction from Oklahoma taxable income for 14 amounts contributed to a Disaster Savings Account in accordance with 15 subsection C of this section. All interest income earned by the 16 Disaster Savings Account is exempt from the tax imposed pursuant to

23 less than or equal to One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), Two Thousand 24 Dollars ($2,000.00);

2 greater than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), the amount equal to 3 the lesser of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) or twice the 4 amount of the taxpayer's qualified deductible; and

5 3. In the case of a self-insured individual who chooses not to 6 obtain insurance on his or her primary residence, Three Hundred
7 Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000.00), but shall not exceed the value
8 of the individual taxpayer's primary residence. The amount 9 prescribed by this paragraph shall be adjusted annually to reflect

23 included in the income of the taxpayer unless the amount of the 24 distribution is used to cover qualified disaster expenses. No

6 reduced by the amount of the distributions for qualified disaster
7 expenses.

8 B. The tax paid pursuant to Section 2355 of Title 68 of the 15 attains the age of seventy (70).

16 C. If a taxpayer who owns a Disaster Savings Account dies, his 17 or her account shall be included in the income of the person who 18 receives the account, unless that person is the surviving spouse of 19 the taxpayer. Upon death of the surviving spouse, the account is 20 included in the income of the person who receives the account. The 21 additional tax in subsection B of this section does not apply to 22 distribution on death of the taxpayer or the surviving spouse.
