15 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 79 O.S. 2021, Section 205, is 16 amended to read as follows:

17 Section 205. A. 1. Any person who is injured, either directly 18 or indirectly, in his or her business or property by a violation of 19 this act, may obtain appropriate injunctive or other equitable
20 relief and monetary damages and shall recover threefold the damages
21 sustained, and the cost of suit, including a reasonable attorney
22 fee. The Attorney General may bring ~~an~~ a civil action in the name 23 of the state, any governmental entity, or as parens patriae on 24 behalf of natural persons residing in the state injured, either

1 directly or indirectly, for appropriate injunctive or other
2 equitable relief and to secure monetary damages for injury sustained
3 by such natural persons to their business or property by reason of 4 any violation of this act. The court shall exclude from the amount 5 of the monetary damages awarded in such action any amount of 6 monetary damages:

7 a. which duplicates amounts which have been awarded for 8 the same injury, or

9 b. which is properly allocable to:

- 10 (1) natural persons who have excluded their claims, 11 and
12 (2) any other persons.

13 The court shall award the state as parens patriae threefold the 14 total damages sustained and the cost of suit, including a reasonable 15 attorney fee. Whenever the state is hereafter injured in its 16 business or property by anything forbidden in this act, it may 17 obtain appropriate injunctive or other equitable relief and monetary 18 damages therefor and shall recover actual damages by it sustained
19 and the cost of suit including a reasonable attorney fee. The court 20 may award under this section, pursuant to a motion by such person or 21 the state, simple interest on actual damages for the period
22 beginning on the date of service of such person's or the state's 23 pleading setting forth a claim under this act and ending on the date
24 of judgment, or for any shorter period therein, if the court finds

1 that the award of such interest for such period is just in the 2 circumstances. The Attorney General may bring an action on behalf
3 of either the state or a political subdivision of the state when 4 either is injured in its business or property by anything forbidden
5 by the provisions of this act.

6 2. In any civil action brought by the Attorney General as 7 parens patriae, the Attorney General shall, at such times, in such 8 manner, and with such content as the court may direct, cause notice
9 thereof to be given by publication. Any person on whose behalf an 10 action is brought may elect to exclude from adjudication the portion 11 of the claim for monetary damages attributable to him or her by 12 filing notice of this election with the court within the time
13 specified in the notice given pursuant to this paragraph.

14 3. In a civil action brought by the Attorney General as parens
15 patriae, the final judgment shall be res judicata as to any claim 16 under this section by any person on behalf of whom the action was 17 brought and who fails to give notice within the period specified in 18 the notice given pursuant to paragraph 2 of this subsection.

19 B. Any person or governmental entity who or which obtains a 20 judgment for damages under 15 U.S.C., Section 15 or any other
21 provision of federal law comparable to this section may not recover
22 damages in a suit under this section based on substantially the same 23 conduct that was the subject of the federal suit.

1 C. Any action to recover damages under this section is barred
2 unless commenced within four (4) years after the claim accrued or 3 was discovered, whichever is later.

4 For purposes of the Oklahoma Antitrust Reform Act, a cause of 5 action accrues:

6 1. When the circumstances giving rise to the cause of action
7 are discovered or should have been discovered in the exercise of 8 reasonable diligence; or

9 2. On the date that the last in a series of acts or practices
10 in violation of the Oklahoma Antitrust Reform Act occurred,

12 aggregate, may constitute a violation of the Oklahoma Antitrust
13 Reform Act.

3 B. The Attorney General or any district attorney may file a 4 criminal information or seek a criminal indictment to enforce the 5 provisions of subsection A of this section.

6 C. The Attorney General may bring a civil action on behalf of 7 the state to seek the imposition of a civil penalty for any 8 violation of the Oklahoma Antitrust Reform Act. The court, upon 9 finding a violation of the Oklahoma Antitrust Reform Act, shall 10 impose a civil penalty to be paid to the General Revenue Fund of the 11 state in an amount not to exceed One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00)
12 for each such violation. In determining the amount of a civil 13 penalty, the court shall consider, among other things:

14 1. The nature and extent of the violation;

15 2. The number of consumers affected by the violation;

16 3. Whether the violation was an isolated incident or a
17 continuous pattern and practice of behavior;

18 4. Whether the violation was the result of willful conduct;

19 5. Whether the defendant took affirmative steps to conceal such 20 violations; and

21 6. Whether, given the size and wealth of the defendant, the 22 civil penalty will be an effective deterrent against future
23 violations.
