9 B. A proceeding to impose the penalty is considered to be a 10 contested case.

11 C. The amount of the penalty may not exceed One Thousand
12 Dollars ($1,000.00) for each violation, and each day a violation 13 continues or occurs is a separate violation for purposes of imposing

16 not exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00).

3 the violation; and

4           6. Any other matter that the Department may require.

5           E. If the Department initially determines that a violation 6 occurred, the Department shall give written notice of the report by

8           F. The notice under subsection E of this section shall:

9           1. Include a brief summary of the alleged violation;

10           2. State the amount of the recommended penalty; and 11           3. Inform the person of the person's right to a hearing on the 12 occurrence of the violation, the amount of the penalty, or both.

13           G. Within twenty (20) calendar days after the date the person

17 Department; or

18           2. Make a request for a hearing on the occurrence of the 11 order contesting the occurrence of the violation, the amount of the 12 penalty, or both.

13 B. Within the thirty-day period prescribed by subsection A of 14 this section, a person who files a petition for judicial review may:

15 1. Stay enforcement of the penalty by:

16 a. paying the penalty to the court for placement in an 17 escrow account, or

18 b. giving the court a supersedeas bond approved by the 19 court that:

20 (1) is for the amount of the penalty, and

21 (2) is effective until all judicial review of the 22 Commissioner's order is final;

23 2. Request the court to stay enforcement of the penalty by 24 filing with the court a sworn affidavit of the person stating that

1 the person is financially unable to pay the penalty and is 2 financially unable to give the supersedeas bond and by sending a
3 copy of the affidavit to the Commissioner by certified mail.

4 C. If the Commissioner receives a copy of an affidavit under 5 subsection B of this section, the Commissioner may file with the 6 court, within five (5) calendar days after the date the copy is 7 received, a contest to the affidavit. The court shall hold a
8 hearing on the facts alleged in the affidavit as soon as practicable 9 and shall stay the enforcement of the penalty on finding that the 10 alleged facts are true. The person who files an affidavit has the 11 burden of proving that the person is financially unable to pay the 12 penalty or to give a supersedeas bond.

13 D. If the person does not pay the penalty and the enforcement 14 of the penalty is not stayed, the penalty may be collected. The 15 Attorney General may sue to collect the penalty.

16 E. If the court sustains the finding that a violation occurred, 17 the court may uphold or reduce the amount of the penalty and order
18 the person to pay the full or reduced amount of the penalty.

19 F. If the court does not sustain the finding that a violation
20 occurred, the court shall order that a penalty is not owed.

21 G. If the person paid the penalty and if the amount of the 22 penalty is reduced or the penalty is not upheld by the court, the 23 court shall order, when the court's judgment becomes final, that the 24 appropriate amount plus accrued interest be remitted to the person

1 within thirty (30) calendar days after the date that the judgment of 2 the court becomes final. The interest accrues at the rate charged 3 on loans to depository institutions by the Federal Reserve Bank of 4 New York. The interest shall be paid for the period beginning on 5 the date the penalty is paid and ending on the date the penalty is 6 remitted.

7 H. If the person gave a supersedeas bond and the penalty is not 8 upheld by the court, the court shall order, when the court's 9 judgment becomes final, the release of the bond. If the person gave 10 a supersedeas bond and the amount of the penalty is reduced, the 11 court shall order the release of the bond after the person pays the 12 reduced amount.
