Bill Analysis

SB 535 expands “law enforcement agency” as it relates to the Oklahoma Open Records Act to include state and local fire marshals when investigating potential criminal violations or when acting on behalf of a law enforcement agency. The measure authorizes public bodies disclosing records due to a request to require advance payment when the estimated cost will exceed $75.00. Requestors may also be required to provide more specific information to the public body to assist the body in identifying the requested records.
