Bill Analysis

SB 797 provides specific reasons for which a teacher's license or certificate can be revoked or suspended by the State Board of Education. The measure prohibits the Board from having the authority to summarily revoke or suspend a certificate prior to an individual proceeding for revocation or other action. It also requires the Board to provide notice to the certificate holder and the employing school district at least 5 days prior to such suspension or revocation, and it requires the Board to take such action within 60 days of providing notification.
