BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1289.24f of Title 21, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Firearm Preservation Act".

B. As used in this act:

1. "Federal firearms license" means a license issued by the United States Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives that authorizes an individual or entity to engage in certain activities related to firearms;

1 2. "Firearm" means any weapon that will or is designed to expel
2 a projectile by the action of an explosive; and

3 3. "Law enforcement agency" means any state, county, municipal,
4 or other law enforcement entity in this state.

5 C. 1. A firearm obtained through a court-ordered turnover,
6 estate settlement due to death, forfeiture, or any other method of 7 acquisition by this state or any political subdivision thereof shall 8 not be destroyed or rendered permanently inoperable.

9 2. Any such firearm obtained by this state or any political 10 subdivision thereof shall be retained by the acquiring entity until 11 the firearm is lawfully disposed of pursuant to the provisions of 12 this act.

13 D. 1. A law enforcement agency shall auction firearms obtained
14 pursuant to the provisions of this act exclusively to individuals
15 who are lawfully eligible to purchase such firearms under state and 16 federal law.

17 2. An individual who purchases a handgun shall be subject to,
18 and pass, any required criminal history record check required by 19 state and federal law.

20 3. Any proceeds from an auction of firearms shall be allocated
21 to the law enforcement agency that conducted the auction for 22 operational expenses, training, or other purposes consistent with 23 state law.

24

1 4. A firearm shall be transferred in compliance with any
2 applicable state and federal regulations.

3 E. No law enforcement agency nor personnel thereof shall be
4 held liable in a civil or criminal proceeding for any harm, injury,
5 or death caused by the subsequent use of a firearm that was 6 auctioned to an eligible buyer pursuant to the provisions of this 7 act.

8 F. 1. Any law enforcement agency that conducts an auction
9 pursuant to the provisions of this act shall maintain records of all
10 auctioned firearms, including the firearm purchaser's federal 11 firearms license number and a record of payment.

12 2. Such records shall be retained for a period of no less than 13 five (5) years and shall be subject to inspection by the Attorney
14 General.

15 G. 1. Any law enforcement agency in violation of the 16 provisions of this act shall be subject to a fine of Five Hundred
17 Dollars ($500.00) for the first offense and a fine of One Thousand
18 Dollars ($1,000.00) for each subsequent offense.

19 2. Any fine collected pursuant to the provisions of this
20 section shall be deposited into the General Revenue Fund.

21 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2025.
