Research Analysis

SB 54 removes the time limitations relating to the analysis of blood or breath alcohol concentration. The measure adds to the list of offenses that may be considered aggravated driving under the influence and clarifies that aggravated DUI is a felony. The measure provides that for a first offense aggravated DUI, the first 10 days of the sentence is not subject to probation, suspension or deferral. For a second offense, the first 30 days are not subject to probation, suspension or deferral. Any subsequent offenses shall add an additional 30 days which are not subject to probation, suspension or deferral.

Fiscal Analysis

The Engrossed version of SB54 modifies sentencing guidelines for certain DUI offenses. The measure adds to the list of sentencing options the use of an ignition interlock device, and deletes from the list of sentencing options a provision that provided for treatment, imprisonment, and a fine. In its current form, this measure is not anticipated to have a material impact on state budget or appropriations.
