Bill Analysis

HB 2622 provides that the manufacturing, marketing, and selling of lawful products shall not be deemed a public nuisance. For the court to deem the defendant liable in an action for public nuisance, the defendant must be determined by the court to have been in control of the conditions giving rise to the nuisance at the time of injury. The measure specifies that the repeated use of a property to commit unlawful drug distribution, prostitution, human trafficking, or sex trafficking shall constitute a public nuisance.
