Bill Analysis

SB 977 prohibits any political subdivision from allowing a public display of lewd acts or obscene material in a public place where a minor could witness such lewd acts or obscene material. The measure also prohibits any individual from showing lewd acts or obscene material in a public place where any other individual could witness such lewd acts or obscene material. The measure establishes a felony for showing lewd acts or obscene material to a minor and provides a cause of action for displaying such acts and materials to a minor or another individual.
