House Author:
FY'26 Impact:	$15,000
Full Year Impact:	$15,000

Bill Summary and Fiscal Analysis:

The committee substitute to SB 216 provides that any person who has been convicted of an offense whose license has expired while in the custody of the Department of Corrections shall have the expiration date of his or her license extended for a period of 6 months after he or she is released from custody. The provisions of this measure related to provisional licenses shall not apply to any person convicted of an offense that requires the mandatory revocation of his or her driver's license. The measure also provides that any reinstated license that has expired during the period of suspension or revocation shall be valid for a 90-day period after the reinstatement date. The Department of Corrections shall provide inmates with relevant documentation to obtain a provisional license before release from custody. The committee substitute has not affected the estimated time of 60 days or additional labor hour costs of $15,000 needed to implement the provisions of this measure.
